2019 3RD QUARTER REAL ESTATE REVIEW

OVER $160 MILLION IN SALES, 2019 YTD

ATHERTON MENLO PARK PORTOLA VALLEY WOODSIDE

We are proud to present the third-quarter review of 2019, a follow-up to the 20th edition of the annual Real Estate Review. In this publication, we provide a summary of sales statistics for Atherton, Menlo Park, Portola Valley, and Woodside for the third quarter. It is our hope that this report proves to be a useful tool for local property owners and potential buyers, enabling them to better understand market trends and residential property values. As always, do not hesitate to call us if you would like any details on sales in your own neighborhood or to discuss a strategy for selling your home. We look forward to speaking with you.

ATHERTON Prices Lower in 3rd Quarter; Up Year-to-Date

The reported average sales price of a home in Atherton in the third quarter of 2019 was $6,851,769, which was lower than the record high of $10,606,955 in the second quarter. Year-to-date through the third quarter, the average sales price is $8,821,304, which is 6% higher than it was in 2018. There were 13 sales in the third quarter as reported in the Multiple Listing Service compared to 17 in the same period last year. Two of the homes in the third quarter sold for more than $10 million. In the second quarter, there were 9 sales for more than $10 million, which contributed to the dramatic record high at that time.

The third-quarter median price was $5,535,000. The record high was in the second quarter at $8,812,500. The median price year-to-date through the third quarter of $6,374,500 is 4% lower than it was in 2018.

Only 3 homes, or 23%, in the third quarter sold over list price. In the second quarter, 32% sold for more than list price, and in the first quarter it was 18%. Homes took longer to sell at a median days on market of 53 in the third quarter, compared to 43 in the second quarter, and 35 in the first quarter.

There are 36 homes currently available for sale in Atherton on the Multiple Listing Service as of the third week in October. Of these, 22 have been on the market for 30 days or more. The average list price of the homes currently for sale is $10,394,833, ranging from $3,280,000 to $41,488,000. The average days on market for the current listings is 63 days.

MENLO PARK

Very Small Drop in Prices Year-to-Date

The reported average sales price of a home in Menlo Park, including single-family, condos, and townhomes, in the third quarter of 2019 was $2,506,791. This is lower than the second quarter, which is typically the peak of the market when spring activity is strongest. Year-to-date, the average price of $2,600,175 is a decline of less than 1% compared to 2018. The median price declined to $2,080,000 in the third quarter, the lowest quarter this year. The median price year-to-date through the third quarter is $2,200,000, which is 4% lower than it was in all of 2018.

There were 83 reported sales in Menlo Park during the third quarter of 2019, 2 of which were more than $7 million. Demand was strong as evidenced by the fact that 35 homes, or 42%, sold for more than list price. This compares to 56% that sold for more than list price in the second quarter and 43% in the first quarter. Overall, the number of homes selling over list price is far fewer than in the past several years.

Homes took longer to sell on average rising to 31 days, compared to 21 in the second quarter. The median days on market was 18, compared to 13 in the second quarter and 12 in the first quarter. Inventory is high with 83 homes currently for sale in Menlo Park in the Multiple Listing Service as of the third week in October. More than half of these have been on the market for more than 30 days. Prices range from $565,000 to $10,850,000.

PORTOLA VALLEY

Prices Up Year-to-Date

The reported average sales price of a home in Portola Valley in the third quarter of 2019 was $3,816,769, which was higher than the second quarter, but substantially lower than the first quarter. Year-to-date through the third quarter, the average sales price is $3,863,744, which is 12% higher than it was in 2018. There were 13 sales in the third quarter as reported in the Multiple Listing Service, the same as the first three quarters last year. One home in the third quarter sold for $13.75 million.

Of the 13 reported sales in Portola Valley in the third quarter of 2019, only 3 sold for more than list price. The average days on market increased significantly compared to the second quarter due to 4 homes that were on the market for 100 days or more. Only 3 homes sold in less than 3 weeks.

As of the third week of October, there are 22 Portola Valley homes for sale in the Multiple Listing Service, with list prices ranging from $2,395,000 to $31,500,000. 15 homes have been on the market for more than 30 days. The current inventory of homes for sale has an average days on market of 62 days.

WOODSIDE

Number of Sales & Prices Down

The average price in the third quarter reached $4,160,900 – higher than the second quarter but lower than the high reached in the first quarter. Year-to-date through the third quarter, the average price of $3,766,862 is 15% lower than it was in all of 2018. The reported median sales price in the third quarter of 2019 was $2,375,000, lower than the second quarter when it was $2,671,000 and the first quarter when it was $3,175,000. Year-to-date through the third quarter, the median price is $2,671,000 – an 18% decrease compared to the median of $3,262,500 in all of 2018.

There were just 10 reported sales in Woodside in the third quarter, bringing the total number of sales for the year to 42. This compares to 79 sales in the same period last year, or a 47% decline. There was one sale at $16.75 million and only 1 home sold for more than list price. On average, homes took 124 days to sell, due to 4 that were on the market for more than 100 days. Only 2 homes sold in less than 3 weeks.

Currently, there are 43 Woodside homes for sale in the Multiple Listing Service, with list prices ranging from $990,990 to $32,000,000. There are 10 homes for sale for more than $10 million. The average days on market for the current listings is 119 days.
