

A CUL-DE-SAC ESTATE WITH RESORT-STYLE LIVING

8 REYNA PLACE

MENLO PARK

PRICE UPON REQUEST

On a premier cul-de-sac in central Menlo Park, this Mediterranean estate of exceptional scale spans two levels with resort-like grounds on approximately one-third acre. Designed for both grand entertaining and comfortable everyday living, the interiors are unified by hand-hewn American walnut floors, custom cabinetry, and finely detailed moldings. Expansive windows and glass doors invite natural light and provide a seamless connection to the outdoors.

At the center, a grand turret foyer introduces the elegant formal living and dining venues. A gourmet kitchen with dual islands is fully open to the family room. The home's five bedrooms are thoughtfully arranged with the primary suite conveniently located on the main level complete with a steam shower and direct access to the rear grounds and pool. A second bedroom suite is found nearby plus an additional bedroom/office. Downstairs, there are two additional bedroom suites both with French doors opening to the exterior. All the bathrooms are beautifully appointed, and several offer heated floors for added comfort.

Rounding out the accommodations is a spacious recreation room with billiards area, fountain patio, and adjoining fitness center plus flexible-use room. A full bar and temperature-controlled wine cellar underscore the home's capacity for entertaining on a large scale. The grounds are equally impressive with a solar-heated saltwater pool and spa, arbor-covered outdoor kitchen, and fireplace on the expansive terrace. An oversized garage, advanced home systems, and abundant storage add the finishing touches. Situated within the highly regarded Menlo Park school district and minutes from downtown Menlo Park and Stanford Shopping Center, this property offers an exceptional opportunity for Silicon Valley living.
