

A LEGACY PROPERTY WITH EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY

Set on nearly one-half acre of level land less than one-half mile from the Woodside town center, this classic mid-century home offers a special opportunity with a meaningful connection to the community's history. The property carries a legacy as the longtime home of George Sellman, a beloved and highly respected figure whose contributions to local education helped shape generations of students. As past District Superintendent and Principal of Woodside Elementary School, founder of the school's cherished 8th Grade Operetta, and namesake of the school auditorium, his influence remains an enduring part of Woodside.

The home has been thoughtfully maintained over the years with refinished hardwood floors, numerous updates, and comfortable living spaces including 3 bedrooms and 2 baths. Freshly painted and ready to enjoy today, the home also presents wonderful possibilities for the future. The level grounds offer exceptional flexibility in a remarkably close-in location to the town center, acclaimed Woodside School, as well as hiking and biking trails that make Woodside such a treasured place to call home. Rich in local history and offering broad appeal for years ahead, this is an opportunity rarely found in one of the Peninsula's most treasured communities.
